Seven Vie For 4 Seats At ACHS

Three more candidates surfaced in the contest for the four open four-year seats on the Antioch Community High School Board of Education.

Filing on the first day, Aug. 19, were incumbents Tom Fisher, Julie Portalski and Glen Moore. Challenger Larry Siwula, of Lindenhurst, also filed on the starting date.

Challengers Russel Lehn and Elizabeth Bates, along with incumbent Charles Forester filed for the four-year openings before the 5 p.m. deadline on Aug. 26.

Michael Zein, who gained his two year seat when trustee Betty Meyer resigned, is seeking re-election for the unexpired two-year seat.

A lottery drawing will be at 8 a.m. on Friday, Aug. 30 for ballot position for the first four candidates that filed.

The contest is on for the Grass Lake School Board. Eight people, including five incumbents, are vying for four four-year seats. Two people are seeking an unexpired two-year seat.

In order of filing, Paul Kitto, Donald Fechtner, incumbent Judy Hansen, Wayne Cramer, Carl Dunfrund, and incumbents James Zegler, Mary Beth Walsh and Robert Mattson seek four-year terms.

Michael Christopoulos and John Handschiegel have filed for an unexpired two-year seat.

On the Antioch Grade School Dist. 34 Board, five incumbents are seeking re-election with no competition.

Young Boy Dies In Sawmill Accident

A two-year-old Antioch boy Aug. 25 died from head injuries that occurred while playing with two brothers and a neighbor boy at the Hiram Butrick Sawmill.

The child was identified as Peter Roupas, the son of George and Toula Roupas, part-owners of the Vault Restaurant, 934 Main St.

The boy's head was crushed when a 4-inch wooden beam bolted to a water wheel on the mill pinned his head next to a concrete wall, said Antioch Police Lt. Thomas Fisher.

Fisher said the boy, who would have been three years old Sept. 3, was playing at the mill at about 4 p.m. with his two brothers, ages 5 and 7, and a 10-year-old neighbor boy.

The four were looking at crayfish in the pond beneath the water mill, Fisher said. Roupas, who was peeking his head over the pond, was struck once before by the wheel and warned by the other children to get away, he said.

Fisher said a Racine couple visiting the mill heard screaming and ran down to the mill. They then brought the boy up the hill and told a girl to call for help.

The sawmill, a replica of the one built by Hiram Butrick in 1839, was built for Antioch's 1976 Bicentennial celebration. It is owned by the village of Antioch.

The accident occurred the last day of George Roupas' involvement with the Vault Restaurant, which has closed for remodeling.

16-Year-Old Antioch Girl Killed In Car Accident

by KAREN WILTBERGER

A 16-year-old Antioch girl was killed Aug. 26 after a car she was driving southbound on Hwy. I-94 in Bristol, Wis., was hit by a semitruck.

Brenda S. Molczan, of 258 Lakewood, died instantly from internal injuries after she was pinned inside the vehicle, said Sgt. Clarence Mielke, of the Kenosha County Sheriff's Dept.

Cynthia L. Cabanaugh, 18, of Antioch, the only passenger in the car, was released Monday morning from Kenosha Memorial Hospital with bruises on the head, arms and legs. The accident occurred at about 2 a.m.

The girls, Mielke said, were entering Hwy. I-94 southbound from Hwy. 50 as the car, owned by Cabanaugh's father, jumped a curb, crossed a ditch and flew up a grass embankment.

The car, then for reasons unknown, crossed almost perpendicular in front of a semitruck going southbound in the middle lane on Hwy. I-94, he said.

The driver of the semitruck was identified as Jack M. Faber, 32, of West Bend, Wis. He was not injured.

Services for Molczan will be held at Strang Funeral Home, 1055 Main St., in Antioch on Thursday, Aug. 29, at 11 a.m.

Molczan was a junior at Antioch Community High School. She was employed as a bus girl at the Wunder Bar Restaurant, Antioch.

Dist. 34 OK's Tentative $4.37 Million Budget

by KAREN WILTBERGER

The Antioch Grade School Dist. 34 School Board approved a tentative budget for the 1985-86 school year that would increase spending by 6.6 percent over last year.

The tentative budget, which excludes expenditures from the construction fund, is $4,371,388.78. It includes a 7 percent salary raise for faculty. The budget last year was $4,091,731.19.

Supt. Donald Skidmore said the budget is tight as in past years. The district, he said, is paying about $700 less per student each year than most Lake County schools. The average cost per student is $2,500.

In October the board is expected to adopt an official budget, which until then will be available for public inspection. Also in October, the board is expected to vote on a 1985 property tax levy, which is recommended to be 4.6 percent, or $2,789,276, over last year.

The board, on the other hand, defeated a recommendation that the SEDOL budget be increased by 18 to 20 percent.

It could not justify accepting an increase much higher than the one for the school budget, Skidmore said. Though the increase seems disproportionately high on the surface, he said, variables such as new salary settlements and the high cost of program growth need that kind of money.

Board member Clint Glover will cast the "No" vote for the district at a Governing Board Meeting, composed of school district representatives across the county, on Aug. 28.

The board also approved the hiring of Shari L. Gehrke, an experienced speech therapist, who has worked four years in the Winthrop Harbor District.

Also approved was the hiring of Deborah Schaefer, who will take over as the position as learning disabilities teacher now held by Susan Poglits. Poglits resigned to take a position closer to her home.

The school district will join the Lake County Alternative Program for the fourth year, the board determined. The program, designed to serve truants who are potential dropouts, is a free service to area school districts.

Skidmore said though the service has not yet been used by the district, there may come a time it may be needed by the grade schools.

The program is primarily used by high schools, he said.

Carol Badame

Chamber President Was A 'Weekend Warrior'

by KAREN WILTBERGER

New Antioch Chamber of Commerce president Carol Badame was a typical "weekend warrior" when she was young, traveling from LaGrange Park, a western suburb, to her family's Antioch summer home on the weekends.

Ten years ago Badame changed her suburban way of life and moved to Antioch after she married Antioch resident Joe Badame. They own Weasel's Restaurant on Route 173 west of Antioch.

And her parents still visit the 40-year-old home on the weekends.

"I'll never leave, I absolutely love it here. I like being greeted on the streets by name," said the 31-year-old Badame, who took over the Chamber of Commerce presidency in July after two and one-half years on the Chamber board.

The position was held by Jeff Mulden, who moved to Palentine with his wife. The position expires at the end of the year.

Badame said she will keep a low profile the remaining four months of the term, mainly because Chamber of Commerce activities are low key this time of year.

However, Badame said she is striving to keep promoting new area industry as she has helped do in the past.

"I'm happy with the accomplishments of a lot of people who have dedicated many of their hours to the chamber," Badame said.

In 1984, she said, the Chamber was $14,000 in debt. By the end of that year, it was only $4,000 in debt. And today the chamber is in the black, she said.

Membership, Badame said, climbed by 10 percent since October, primarily due to Vince Giorgi, better known as the "advertising wiz."

The support mainly comes from industry and retail businesses, Badame said, adding that the majority of more than 100 area resorts, however, don't participate with the chamber, perhaps because they are seasonal businesses.

Badame said that after three years she is ready to let go of an official spot on the chamber, but she said she would still like to be involved.

"I feel the chamber has no other way than to move up," she said. "It's a winning organization now."

Teens Steal $80 From Donut House

Two Antioch men were arrested and charged with burglary Aug. 20 after they and a juvenile stole $80 from Winchell's Donut House, 442 Orchard St., in Antioch.

Thomas Quinn, 19, and David Oster, 18, were arrested by Lt. Thomas Fisher, Sgt. Charles Watkins and officers George Broecker and James Hession, who had received a tip about the burglary.

Antioch police said Quinn had slipped into the bathroom of the donut house after it closed at about 8 p.m. while the other two waited near a pay phone outside of Ben Franklin.

The juvenile apparently called Quinn to tell him the coast was clear, police said. Quinn then left the shop from the back door.

The 15-year-old Wadsworth youth has also been charged.

Almost Time To Move Inside To Backyard

by GLORIA DAVIS

The father and son restaurant team of Brian and Al Scott have had their innovative restaurant, The Backyard Steak Pit, in Grandwood Park, just off of Grand Ave., open for over six months and the few changes that they've made since opening day have enhanced the rustic eating place.

Their 40-foot long giant barbecue pit has been busy six days a week, winter and summer alike, with many customers doting on the fact that they can pick their own steak out of the giant refrigerator and see to it that it's done just the way they like it.

Just as many diners, mostly women(who want to be cooked for and served, for a change)leave the cooking up to the professionals.

The barbecue, the only one of its kind within several miles, is still flourishing as a place where customers mingle while their steak sizzles.

The Backyard is now open just for dinner, Tuesdays through Thursdays, 5 to 10 p.m., Fridays and Saturdays, 5 p.m. to midnight and 4 to 9 p.m. on Sundays.

Besides adding a few delectable goodies to the already abundant salad bar(comes with every steak and baked potato) many new menu items have been added this summer: a hot ham sandwich, steak on a stick and a shrimp-kabob.

With the cold weather approaching-fast, The Backyard is the perfect restaurant for those who love to cook outside all year around. Here they can continue their summer barbecueing ritual in a warm cozy atmosphere and probably meet new friends to 'boot.

SPOTLIGHT

Kirk Players Reveal 20th Season Plays

The Kirk Players will celebrate their 20th anniversary with a special treat: their 1985-86 season will feature four plays rather than the usual three.

Designed to suit a variety of tastes, the Subscription Series includes the well known and the unknown, comedy and suspense. Their offering to you will begin with "Barefoot In The Park" late in September. "Hide and Seek" and "Don't Tell Mother!" will follow at about the usual times with "...And Then I Wrote..." closing the season in mid-June.

In the popular "Barefoot" a bubbling comedy by one of America's leading comedy playwrights, you will meet a young couple just returning from a honeymoon to their sixth floor (you climb the stairs) New York apartment. The 27th and 28th of September are the dates for this irresistibly funny Neil Simon play.

On Dec. 6-7, "Hide and Seek" brings the juxaposition of the real and the supernatural into sharp focus in an abandoned farmhouse into which a man and his expecting wife have recently moved.

'Don't Tell Mother!" is just what the doctor ordered to rid yourselves of the last winter induced cabin fever. This maniacal farce by Monk Ferris involves the good guys, the bad guys, the innocent (and not so innocent) bystanders and, after awhile nobody is quite sure of who is which. Mark your calendar for March 14-15.

And if you liked "The Creature Creeps" a few years ago, and "Honestly, Now!" last year, then you ought not miss Jack Sharkey's newest venture into hilarity called "...And Then I Wrote...". It seems that plays about plays are always fun to do, and so the season's final offering is about a neophyte playwright and how a producer, secretary, and associates try to rewrite his epic drama into a broad farce. June 13-14 will be the dates for this riotous showbiz comedy.

All productions will be held in the auditorium of Mundelein High School; curtain time will be 8 p.m. As usual, all proceeds from these shows will be donated to non-profit, service oriented organizations. This is one of several ways in which theis non-profit Community Stock Company uses its talents to serve Mundelein and nearby communities.

Whereas an individual admission is $4, season tickets for the Subscription Series are now available. A season pass for two adults is $18 while a family pass for two adults and their children living at home is only $24. These are available from any Kirk Player or by calling John W. Lynn at (312) 566-6594.

Cedar Villa Fight Sends 2 To Hospital

Round Lake Beach resident Earl Wolford Jr., 29, was hospitalized in fair condition Aug. 23 after he and Waukegan resident John A. Rathman, 28, fought with a baseball bat and a knife in the Cedar Villa Apts., 1899 N. Cedar Lake Rd., Round Lake Beach.

Wolford, who has been released from Condell Memorial Hospital, Libertyville, was admitted with four or five stab wounds on the hip, arms and hand.

Rathman was taken to St. Therese Hospital in Waukegan with head injuries, allegedly caused by the baseball bat.

Wolford allegedly entered the apartment of Amy Hogan, 26, of 1929 Cedar Lake Rd., Round Lake Beach, by climbing through an open window.

According to Round Lake Beach Police Dept. Sgt. James Simoncelli, once in the apartment Wolford got into a fight with Charles M. Brown, 25, of Park City, and then smashed the headlights and windows of Brown's car.

Round Lake Beach Detective Dave Ostertag said Hogan then called Rathman in Waukegan and asked him to pick up Brown and take him back to Park City.

Wolford, who lives in the Cedar Villa Apts., then met Rathman in the complex where the fight took place.

4-H Queen's Reign To End

Tara Kozlowski, 15, of Fox Lake, is the last reigning Lake County 4-H Queen. Though she may be ending that role in September, she faces just as much excitement.

At the county fair she bacame one of the new 4-H ambassadors, which is a group of five teenagers representing the county.

She also returned from the State Fair where she gave an action presentation on CPR as well as had a ceramics project. Tara molded, designed and painted a small jewelry box, which she won second place for, and became a grand champion at the county fair.

Tara Kozlowski

Tara is a four-year member of the Fox Lake Pathfinders Club, where her mother is the leader and her brother and sisters are members. Tara is also a C.I.T. (counselor in training) at the 4-H camp, Camp Shaw, where her father has been a counselor during his summer vacations.

Her projects in the club consist of many arts & crafts such as ceramics, drawing, painting and calligraphy as well as small animals. She raises and breeds pet gerbils and rats. 4-H has even helped her through a self development class to learn some modeling which she hopes to get into in the future.

As a sophomore at Grant H.S., she is very active in volleyball, gymnastics and softball.

Coles To Run For CLC Board Of Trustees

Former Lake County Board Chairman Ron Coles of Lake Villa has filed his candidacy for the College of Lake County Board of Trustees.

Lake County voters will elect three trustees to the college board in the Nov. 5 election. The term of office is six years.

Coles was Lake Villa Twp. supervisor and Lake County Board member from 1965-1977. He was Lake County Board Chairman and Liquor Commissioner from 1971-1974.

In 1976, Coles was convicted of accepting $800 in campaign contributions from two tavern owners while serving as liquor commissioner. The Federal Court ruled that he was guilty of extortion under a strict interpretation of the law. Mr. Coles was then removed from office.

In 1981, Coles was thwarted in a political comeback when he lost to Fred Popp for Lake Villa Twp. supervisor. Popp subsequently lost the office to Dorothy Thompson in this year's township elections. Coles vigorously supported Thompson's election for township supervisor.

This month, Supervisor Thompson and the township board appointed Ron Coles to the Lake Villa Fire Protection Dist. Coles also manages Protection Unlimited, a major mosquito abatement firm in Lake County.

Also filing for the three open seats were incumbents Richard Anderson and James Lumber, along with Melody Brown and Dorothy Harnish.

Fire, Police Depts. Enter Competition

Teams of fire fighters and police officers from the Lake County area will put their physical prowess on the line at 8 a.m., Saturday, Aug. 31, at the Libertyville High School track field when they take part in the First Annual Public Safety Fitness Competition.

The competition sponsored by Condell Memorial Hospital will give fire and police department teams the opportunity to challanege each other on an obstacle course featuring a run, tire course, low hurdles, rope fence, a crawl and a long jump.

TEK Ambulance, Inc. of Libertyville, a co-sponsor, will provide the trophies and awards to the top three teams and to the individual team member with the best individual overall performance in each age group and class.

Teams from the Libertyville, Mundelein, Gurnee, Round Lake, Wauconda and Waukegan Fire Departments have already registered. The Lake County Sheriff's Police and TEK Ambulance have also entered teams.

Proceeds from the event will benefit the Jac Bellis Fund, a scholarship fund established in the memory of the late Emergency Department doctor. This educational fund assists young people who are pursuing a career in a health field and associated with the Penwasciz health career program at the hospital.

The Time Machine

Ten Years Ago: August 27, 1975

Boaters and motorists will flock to Korpan's Point, near Fox Lake, Sunday in a massive demonstration to "save the Chain O'Lakes and Fox River."

The Antioch Village Board has been asked to put the CABL company's request for annexation on its agenda as soon as possible.

Last week's meeting of the Women of the Moose was attended by 32 co-workers. Mary Galster won first prize, a $25 savings account donated by the State Bank of Antioch. Other winners to receive prizes were Judy Cook, Virginia Weinmann, Jean Meiure, Elizabeth Mercatores, Louise Stenburg, Florence Ahrens and Dolores Povilaitis.

Thirty Years Ago: September 1, 1955

This year will go down in history as having one of the hottest summers on record. The report for August by Cooperative obvserver Roy I. Kulfalk shows that on 13 days the manximum temperature was 90 degrees or above, which is perhaps a record for that month. The hottest day was 97 degrees on Aug. 21 when in other areas the mercury got up to 100.

A compareatively small crowd took advantage of the fine entertainment the Veterans of Foreign Wars presented Saturday night at the Antioch High School. Among the hit numbers were Allen Crane, 9, baton twirler from Gages Lake, and Ronny Toepper, 11, his father and brother from Trevor in a song and of course the chorus of veterans dressed as chorines.

Fifty Years Ago: August 29, 1935

The Antioch American Legion Post No. 748 has been incorporated and granted a charter by the State of Illinois, according to an announcement by Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes. Otto S. Klass, Laurel D. Powless and Joseph SMith are named as the incorporators to carry out the provisions and conditions of the By-Laws and Constitution of the organization as set forth by the American Legion.

Members of the Antioch 4-H Club, showing dairy cattle, sheep and poultry at the Annual 4-H Club Round-up, in connection with the Lake County Farm Bureau annual picnic and Diamond Lake, topped the winnings with many blue ribbons and championships.

Marie Burge Elected A National Officer

Marie Burge, granddaughter of Mary Polley of Antioch was elected one of 11 national officers representing 350,000 Future Homemakers of America members during the organization's 1985 National Leadership Meeting, held July 8-11 in Salt Lake City, Utah. Burge will be an officer to 13 states in the upper Midwest.

Burge's election took place during a four-day leadership event centered around the student-developed theme "40 Years Young and We've Just Begun." One of the highlights of this year's national meeting was Future Homemakers of America's 40th Anniversary celebration. During the week, 2,000 young men and women from across the country attended leadership workshops and issues sessions dealing with such contemporary societal concerns as fitness and nutrition, drug and alcohol abuse, family relations, future careers, teenage pregnancy and peer influence.

During Burge's year as a national officer, she will help plan the focus and content of Future Homemakers of America's 1986 National Leadership Meeting, to be held next July in Orlando, Florida.

Square Dancing Clubs Begin In Lake County

Square dancing has been organized in the Lake County area for many years. This year's season of dancing fun is ready to get underway.

Each Lake County club has its own lessons and dances. Dancers visit other area clubs for an evening of friendly dancing to area callers.

The "stealing" of banners is also a part of these dances. Clubs must bring at least three couples to "steal" a banner. If more than one club would like to steal a banner a drawing is made. Once a banner has been "stolen" a club must bring at least three couples to retrieve it.

The clubs also do demonstrations, benefits and march in parades to help promote square dancing. There are also state and national conventions which club members may attend.

Square dancing is a great way to make new friends as well as keeping in shape.

Lessons will begin at all Lake County Square Dancing Clubs in September. New dancers will be ready for dances in November or December. The fees may vary for each Lake County club.

Dancers in Grayslake, Round Lake and Lake Villa may call the "Lake Promenaders" at (312) 356-7887 or (312) 223-4012. Lessons begin at 8 p.m. on Monday, Sept. 23 and are held at Woodland Intermediate School in Gages Lake.

Winthrop Harbor and Zion dancers, "Swingin' Swedes," will begin lessons at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 5 at the Winthrop Harbor Community Center, 1520 7th St., Winthrop Harbor. For more information call (312) 872-2955 or (312) 872-8278.

Gurnee and Waukegan dancers, "Partner Trades," will begin lessons at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 12 at the Church of Our Lady, 900 N. Greenbay Rd., Waukegan. For more information call (312) 336-6667 or (312) 556-8636.

Gurnee, Waukegan and Wildwood dancers may also call the "Gurnee Walk 'N' Dodgers." Lessons for this club will begin at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 12 at Cutty's Resort. For more information call (312) 623-4071 or (312) 223-5262.

Libertyville dancers may call the "Saints and Swingers." For information on starting date and location call (312) 367-1350 or (312) 336-7964.

Score One For Progress

Considering the complex political alliances on the Lake County Board, it wasn't surprising that appointments to the Round Lake Sanitry District board made by County Chairman James LaBelle of Zion erupted into strident partisan exchanges. LaBelle was doing his duty according to statute on what outwardly was a purely, local perfunctory matter. But in County Board activities, it's what goes on underneath the surface that counts---politically.

This explains in part why Dist. 4 Reps. Jim Fields of Antioch and Donna-Mae Litwiler of Ingleside made such a fuss over LaBelle's appointments. They perceived LaBelle to be doing handy work for arch foe Norman Geary, their colleague from Dist. 4, so they plowed ahead in opposition, with no little disgust being expressed by board members from other parts of the county who were interested in getting on with other business.

Geary took time to explain the political realities of the appointments and in doing so accounted for the reason why Fields and Litwiler were making an issue of the appointments. Geary stressed that one of the appointees, James Raihle, was opposed by Mayor Rudy Magna of Round Lake and that is why Fields and Litwiler were fighting the appointments.

At this juncture, Dist. 2 Rep. John Balen of Waukegan made the most sensible comment of the whole encounter. "The board is still split by the power blocs, but if the war continues this board will disintegrate and not accomplish anything," Balen declared. The Waukegan Democrat closed by reminding fellow board members that LaBelle and Geary are members of the same bloc. Apparently, Balen's remarks carried some weight because in the end only Litwiler, Fields and Dist. 5 Rep. Robert Depke voted against LaBelle's appointments and they carried easily.

Chalk up one time the County Board got a job done after putting aside political realities.

Politicking Starts Early

The political sage who said the 1986 campaign will be longer than ever and more intense than past elections must have known what he was talking about. Candidates have broken fast and are already running hard, long before the traditional Labor Day start.

Gov. James Thompson took to hopscotching around the state to announce his bid for an unprecedented fourth term-to the surprise of no one. With a bulging war chest and solid union support, Thompson appears to be in great shape to run for re-election. By the time the electorate starts thinking about politics, Build Illinois evidence will be everywhere. Or at least that's the way it has been plan

The early surprises in our locality came from two local canidates. State Rep. Virginia Frederick (R-Lake Forest) decided to seek re-election rather than go for a Senate Seat and Don Mason, an expected aspirant for Lake County Sheriff, caught just about everyone off guard with the announcement that he will run as an independent Republican. Interestingly, in making his announcement, Mason offered his definition of an independent Republician as " a candidate who doesn't have the backing of the central committee."

Honors for the earliest starters easily are being shared by two Republicians who are competing for the nomination for county clerk, County Board Rep. Donna-Mae Litwiler and Wauconda Village Clerk Venita McConnel. Both of them already have logged three months of solid campaigning. Their race will be a test of physical endurance if nothing else.

We're happy to exclude ourselves from the knockers who bemoan long campaigns. Let the fur fly. Politics is what makes our form of government tick. A choice of politics or no politics is no choice at all. Our only proviso is that the campaigning be clean and open.

Boxing A Risky Business

The return of boxing to the Lakeland area, after an absence of some three decades, produced mixed reactions. Sports fans looking for something different got their due, but as an exhibition of prize fighting the card was so-so and financially the Saturday afternoon event was a dud. On the basis of what happened in Osage Park, Wauconda, the future of boxing hereabouts is limited at best.

The boxing show was the brainchild of Brian Bettis, a young professional with hometown roots, who probably has a brighter future in sports promotion than the light heavyweight division where he hopes to work up to a title match. Bettis "sold" Wauconda Park District on underwriting the boxing show as a fund raiser. Without doubt, after losing $2,500 park officials wish they never heard of prize fighting.

At one time boxing was a popular amateur sport in this locality, ultimately being phased out due to pressure from anti-violence protestors. West Lake County was a hot-bed of professional wrestling 40 years ago with matches staged regularly at Peg's Arena, Grayslake; Lake County Stadium, Round Lake Park, and the Antioch Palace. Local civic groups like the Lions Club also sponsored wrestling shows at the high school. Television wrestling doomed live exhibitions. Exit live violence.

It's too bad the park district lost money, but park officials should have known better. Prize fighting is a risky business both inside and outside the ring.

Commitment Lacking

Editor:

When the "Concerned citizens" called me, prior to the ill-fated Warren High School referendum,I pointed out what I thought was extreme short-sightedness.

I told them that I personally knew of three people at Baxter Travenol who wanted to buy a home in HeatherRidge, but who were waiting to see if the school referendum passed,waiting to see whether we would vote to provide adequate educational facilities comparable to neighboring school districts.

Evidentally we lack the commitment. We voted to save pennies while losing thousands of dollars in property values.

All three eventually bought elsewhere: Libertyville, Mundelein and Vernon Hills.

Since the referendum was defeated,real estate listings in HeatherRidge have increased substantially.

We have no one to blame but ourselves.

Silence Broken By Retired Mayor On Public Issue

by BILL SCHROEDER

Every community benefits from people like Don Cremin. Retired from civil service at Great Lakes Naval Training Center and a spritely 76, Cremin has "done it all" as far as public service and community involvement is concerned. Now he's enjoying the stage in life where he can sit back, observe.

"You're an elder statesman," the writer remaked. "Thanks. You're generous," replied Cremin, former mayor of Lake Villa, former village trustee, former fireman. Don was a public official who always measured his words. He never flew off the handle to make himself look silly in the process. He "waited" more than a decade to run for public office years ago because he wanted to make sure that he was prepared for the responsibilities of public office.

We are comparing notes now because the former mayor felt compelled to speak out on an issue in the community that he holds in great affection which is being torn by the question of how, when and where to establish a second fire station. Basically, Don is coming from the viewpoint that newcomers are ignoring the past efforts of a lot of people who worked hard to get the community and the fire department where it is today.

Don krinkled his eyes and grinned. Using the current rhubarb as a point of departure for public issues in general, Cremin remarked, "It's easy to chose up sides when you don't have the perspective of time. I've been around long enough, though, to have friends on both sides. When you're in this position you tend to look at things differently."

Well spoken.

Cremin put his feelings in context. After a person is out of the main stream, he said it doesn't serve any great purpose in speaking out on everything. There are times, however, when he said he feels that it is appropriate to address an issue. This is one of them. "I feel that I want to share my thoughts on a problem with the community."

The words of a thoughtful man.

THINKING SENATE—Aides in the office of Congressman Phil Crane (R-12th) have confirmed the truth of reports that the popular Republican is considering challenging Sen. Alan Dixon in 1986. "We're keeping our options open," is the way they put it.

The interesting thing about the Crane boomlet is that it is coming from outside Illinois, mostly conservatives who think the conservative Crane would be the ideal opponent for the liberal-leaning Dixon. One source placed the amount of money that national conservatives would be willing to "invest" in Crane's race against Dixon at $10 million. Basically, the Crane for Senate supporters feel he would have no financial difficulties. This is similar to the situation in which Congressman Paul Simon toppled veteran Illinois Sen. Charles Percy. Simon, as it turned out, was bankrolled by outside liberal interests, mostly from California, and is the reason why he entered the race in the first place and ran with confidence.

WINNING REDHEAD—Colette Fleming, 13, of Gurnee, won third place in the 1985 Irish Fest red hair kids contest. The event was held as one of the many competitions at the Irish Fest in Milwaukee, a mid-August tradition. Irish Fest is considered one of the largest Irish cultural and music expositions in the nation. First place, by the way, was won by Kelly Burns, a five-year-old, from suburban Milwaukee.

BEAVERS AT WORK—A family of beavers reportedly has taken up residence at the outlet of Squaw Creek near Fox Island, Long Lake. Residents of the area say they have seen evidence of beavers gnawing at trees. Eddie Biskey told this columnist that there is one adult and four youngsters. If the report is true, we wonder how the beavers came to Long Lake? We've never heard of any other beaver reports in the Lakeland area.

Good Riddance

Editor:

Spring Hill, Tenn., the G.M. Saturn plant grand prize winner, reminds me of an old Susan Hayward movie, "I'll Cry Tomorrow".

A few landowners and land developers will benefit. A few politicians will win some political advantage, perhaps even some financial gain. However, the big winner will be G.M. and the ultimate loser will be the residents of Spring Hill and nearby surrounding communities. Even if what is reported in Crain's Chicago Business News is true, that no tax incentives were given to G.M. to lure them to Spring Hill. Incidentally, that report does make the many other states, cities and counties look a bit foolish in their frantic efforts to give the store away to land Saturn.

Under our present county-wide, short-sighted growth philosophy; their rural environment will be destroyed, their quality of life greatly diminished, their property taxes along with other costs will raise and we will still call it progress.

Ask Detroit, Mich., the city that everyone knows where it is but no one wants to go there, if a few years of temporary prosperity was worth it. Ask Belvidere, Ill., who is virtually being held captive by Chrysler Corp., if bigger is better. Ask Buelah., N.D., where a Federal government 1.5 billion dollar financed project has bankrupted this sleepy farm town, if trading a solid and stable wheat farming economy for an industrial "quick fix" was worth the gamble. A quote from the Wall Street Journal tells it all. "When the roller coaster stops, Beulah could be left with a population of aging farmers and a mountain of debt."

The Saturn plant could have helped revitalize any one of a dozen decaying cities in Illinois, but the very problems they will bring to Spring Hill, are the same problems that other industrial prizes left behind in earlier years, costly problems they don't want to inherit.

Spring Hill, Tenn. may benefit from a temporary "industrial quick fix", but as sure as night follows day and as witnessed by Detroit and endless other cities, they too "will cry tomorrow".

You Should Know

Editor:

If your pet becomes lost, it is no longer a pet - it's a stray animal; and if picked up by most local or County animal control officers, the animal will be "jailed," otherwise known as impounded.

You should know that if the animal isn't wearing proper I.D. tags, you will not be notified. The animal will be kept for seven days if you haven't claimed the animal by then, the following is likely to occur:

The officer makes a judgment to put the animal to sleep or to send it to an animal shelter for adoption or reclamation. Most communities in Lake County and the County politic itself have a contractual relationship with the Orphans of the Storm, Inc., located in Riverwoods, Illinois. The Orphans of the Storm, Inc., is a private facility discharging a public responsibility by being a "dumping ground" for most of Lake County's stray animals (pets in deep trouble).

The physical plant is an outdated complex of rambling chicken-coop type structures, poorly ventilated except for the air-conditioned office. The kennels are not constructed according to present-day standards to promote and facilitate sanitation. (Used newspapers are pretty much the state of the art.)

The staff at Orphans of the Storm is very small and lacks the equipment to control the extreme and inhumane fly and insect problem. The flies are described by the staff as being deer fly, which cluster on the animals' ears by the hundreds, causing the animals' ears to become red and raw and finally ragged and mutilated, as the flies literally "eat" the animals' ears. The animal, at this stage, has lost its "pet appeal" and its chances for adoption are dim and remote. The humane thing, then, would be to put the animal to sleep.

You might ask if there could be another, better way of caring for lost pets by agencies responsible to the public. Perhaps the County's animal control facility at Lakewood Forest Preserve District, Wauconda, could be expanded and cooperative agreements with the various villages could be arranged to provide a professionally managed, humane animal control and adoption center.

Need Help

Editor:

I was wondering if anyone is aware of the new problems the polio children of yesterday have to face again.

Thirty years later, some of the estimated 600,000 survivors of polio begin experiencing alarmingly familiar signs again: fatigue, muscle and joint pains, weakness or loss of muscle function, and respiratory problems.

Once again, these polio victims have to go back to braces, wheelchairs and respiratory support. Employment and independence is jeopardized.

This time there is nowhere to turn for help.

Physicians of today have never been educated about polio. Polio victims have been misdiagnosed because physicians don't understand the symptoms, and have been turned to the March of Dimes for help. Yet, the March of Dimes, dealing primarily with birth defects, informs these victims of polio that polio is gone.

But is it really gone?

Maybe the public could correct the March of Dimes by telling them you haven't forgotten the terrible years of our childhood.

Ask the March of Dimes to try again to help their polio children. The medical society needs to be educated and be urged to start research again to try to stop the epidemic that they are now facing.

A polio child of yesterday.

Jim Sees Reelection As Way To White House

Steinke On Politics

by JOHN STEINKE

Did you know that GOP Gov. Jim Thompson is suffering from an incurable disease? It has been diagnosed as presidentialitis, and the only cure is embalming fluid. In his high school yearbook, "Big Jim" recorded that his life's goal was to become president of the United States. This is the reason why Gov. Thompson is running for reelection to an unprecendented fourth term. His political strategists have advised him that he has a better chance of securing a position of the 1988 Republican ticket as a sitting Governor.

Assuming he wins reelection in 1986, what are Gov. Thompson's prospects of winning a place on the 1988 national ticket? As a betting proposition, chances of a governor-President in 1988 are slim. No sitting governor has been elected to the White House since Democrat Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1932. Adlai E. Stevenson of Ill., the Democratic standard bearer in 1952, was the last man to be given the opportunity to go directly from statehouse to the White House, and he lost to Dwight Eisenhower. Although several subsequent governors have been regarded as presidential material, none came close to heading a Republican or Democratic national ticket.

Yet, the ranks of unemployed governors have produced our last two presidents: Jimmy Carter and Ronald Reagan. In all, seven presidents have had prior experience as the governor of a state or a territory. For many years the governor of New York was almost automatically assumed to be a potential presidential candidate. One of the best-balanced (although losing) tickets in history was the all-governor Republican team of 1948: Thomas E. Dewey of New York and Earl Warren of California.

From 1789 until the Great Depression, statehouses were generally considered the launching pad for presidential ambitions. The premium was on a candidate having actual experience in the administration of the state government. Gorvernors were perceived as "presidents in miniature." At the same time, the federal government was relatively inactive in providing services to Americans. Those services that touched the voter came from the state and local levels. Governors were major figures; members of Congress had lesser rank, especially in the seeming-calm times of isolationism on the international scene. Isolationism refers to the United States' noninvolvement in global affairs. Until 1960, only four presidents in the preceding century had served in the U.S. Senate: Andrew Johnson, Benjamin Harrison, Warren G. Harding and Harry S. Truman.

The aftermath of President Franklin D. Roosevelt's New Deal programs, World War II, the Cold War and the advent of television reversed the age of the governor. Beginning with the 1960 Kennedy-Nixon campaign through 1972, every presidential candidate of both major parties was a product of Washington rather than statehouse politics. Richard M. Nixon, John F. Kennedy, Barry Goldwater, Lyndon Johnson, Hubert H. Humphrey and George McGovern were all derived from the U.S. Senate. Of these, only two - Goldwater, once vice-mayor of Phoenix, and Humphrey, once mayor of Minneapolis - could claim any executive experience in grassroots government affairs.

Since World War II, foreign affairs has dominated the scene in presidential politics. Governors have no access to the foreign stage, and in Congress that realm is largely reserved for the U.S. Senate. Thus, Senators became the principal White House aspirants in the Nuclear Age. The TV media focuses on Washington, and governors have almost no name recognition outside their own states. Governors are unreported until a disaster strikes their state like a hurricane or a prison riot.

But the Vietnam conflict and the Watergate affair discredited the Washington-based politicians and restored the place of American governors in presidential races. The age of the governor returned with the elections of Carter and Reagan. Finally, the efforts of the Reagan administration to decentralize federal authority have given the nation's governors the initiative on environmental, education, economic and social issues. State governments are more important than they have been at any time since the framing of the Constitution.

Despite the second coming of the governor, don't expect Jim Thompson to fulfill his prophesy of becoming president of the United States in 1988. Oh, "Big Jim" will probably make a banzai charge for the White House; but he would be content with a vice-presidential nomination. And that ain't all bad. After all, Thompson would be only one heartbeat away from the prize.

Results Vary On Slam Hand

BRIDGE

by Bill Sachen

Waukegan Bridge Center
(312) 662-7204

by BILL SACHEN

On a recent Friday evening, there was a qualifying session for the Grand National Pairs at the Waukegan Bridge Center. Top scorers were first, Judy Kohn of Highland Park and Andy Harvey of Libertyville; second, Hank Meurer, of Libertyville and Jeff Schuett, of Waukegan; third, Alice Jorgensen of Lake Villa and Steve Snoke, of Chicago; fourth, Judi Meurer, of Libertyville and Ginny Schuett, of Waukegan; fifth, Jackie Unmack, of Lake Villa and Terry Carter, of Lake Villa.

Today's hand was from that game. As in most hands played in a duplicate bridge game, there were varied results. Some of the players were in 6S making, 6S down one, 4S making 6, 4S making 5, 4H making 4 and 4H down one.

Only one pair reached 6S and made it. This is understandable since it is not easy to reach 6S or to make it. After North opens 1H and South responds 1S, North should jumpshift to 3C showing a game-going hand. When South rebids 3S, North thinks there might be a slam but has no clear-cut way to investigate it. Backwood would not be useful in this situation if partner shows one Ace, it might be the Ace of diamonds which would be a duplication of values. North's best bid is probably a jump to 5S, asking partner how good his spades are. With an excellent spade suit, South should bid 6S.

Against 6S, West probably leads the Ace of diamonds. South trumps in dummy and can either try to establish the heart suit for diamond discards or trump his other diamond losers in dummy. If he tries the latter, he plays the AK of clubs and ruffs a club in his hand, ruffs a diamond in dummy and ruffs a club with the nine of spades in his hand. He now ruffs his last diamond with the Queen of spades and plays the Ace of hearts and another heart. East wins and leads another heart which he must trump high to avoid an overruff. This sets up a spade trick for West when the spades don't break and he is down one.

Declarer can make the hand by setting up dummy's hearts for diamond discards. Try it and see. Always look for a chance to set up a long suit in dummy to discard losers from your hand.

EYEWEAR, NO LONGER A NECESSITY?

EYE SURGERY WHICH TAKES PLACE WHILE THE PATIENT SNOOZES IN AN OUTPATIENT CENTER NOW OFFERS THE REALISTIC HOPE OF REMOVING EYEGLASS DEPENDENCY FOR MANY WHO ARE UNCOMFORTABLE WITH CONTACT LENSES OR WHO SEEK FREEDOM FROM EYEWEAR FOR PERSONAL OR PROFESSIONAL REASONS.

THESE SURGICAL TECHNIQUES, FIRST USED IN THE U.S.S.R. AND IN COLUMBIA, CAUSE BETTER FOCUSING OF LIGHT WITHIN THE EYE BY RESHAPING THE CORNEAL WINDOW.

IN THE SOVIET TECHNIQUE (FYODOROV), CALLED RADIAL KERATOTOMY, HALF MILLIMETER-DEEP RADIAL CUTS GOING FROM THE PUPIL'S EDGE TOWARD THE WHITE PORTION ALLOW A NATURAL FLATTENING EFFECT ON THE CENTRAL CORNEA TO OCCUR.

REFINED IN THE U.S.S.R. SINCE 1973 AND IN THE UNITED STATES SINCE 1978, MORE THAN 100,000 KERATOTOMIES HAVE BEEN PERFORMED WORLD-WIDE.

SEVERAL U.S. STUDIES HAVER RECONFIRMED ITS SAFETY AND HIGH EFFECTIVENESS, THOUGH SOME RARE, SERIOUS COMPLICATIONS HAVE OCCURED.

KERATOTOMY CORRECTS NEARSIGHTEDNESS AND ASTIGMATISM.

IN THE COLUMBIAN TECHNIQUE (BARRAQUER), THE SURGEON USES HIGH-TECH EQUIPMENT TO REMOVE A QUARTER-MILLIMETER-THICK CONTACT LENS-SHAPED WAFER FROM THE FRONT EYE WALL.

THIS PROCEDURE, WHICH HAS A 25 YEAR TRACT RECORD, CORRECTS FARSIGHTEDNESS AS WELL AS NEARSIGHTEDNESS BEYOND THE RANGE OF KERATOTOMY.

Three out of 11 Lake County communities have issued citations to residents not wearing seat belts since the state law took effect July 1, which requires drivers and front seat passengers to wear the devices.

Those three have have issued citations in conjunction with an accident or another traffic offense, such as speeding or driving with a suspended drivers license.

Round Lake Park Police Chief, John Robinson, whose department had issued approximately two citations so far, said the seat belt law can be counterproductive if not obeyed properly. "Most people don't remember to put them (seat belts) on and when they see a squad car, they get into an accident trying to put them on," he said.

Some departments have said the law is a difficult habit to get into for those who have been driving for many years and at the same time, difficult to enforce because of the waist-type seat belts and because drivers can "buckle up" as an officer is approaching. Also, officers cannot always determine, at first glance, if a belt is actally buckled.

In light of this adjustment, some area departments are giving citizens time to adjust to the law by only issuing verbal or written warnings. Six of the 11 departments interviewed are currently issuing warnings to people not wearing the belts. In Mundelein, for example, officers are issuing warnings until Sept. 1, 60 days after the law went into effect and then will issue citations in conjunction with another traffic offense. Lindenhurst Police Dept. is waiting another 30 days — until Sept. 26, before issuing tickets.

Also, Wauconda and Antioch police departments have determined to leave the warnings up to the individual officers' discretion. Wauconda has issued one written warning, while Antioch has given out "several."

Wauconda Police Chief Paul Hansen said, "it looks like a substantial amount (of people) are complying with the law. I hope it gets better," he said.

Fox Lake Police Sgt. James Busch said the law is difficult to enforce because of waist-type seat belts and those found in convertibles.

Views Venita As 'Hard Working"

Wauconda Village Clerk Venita McConnel has picked up the support of Ela Township Supervisor Robert L. "Bob" Grever in her quest for the Republican nomination for Lake County Clerk in next year's elections.

Supervisor Grever asserts, "The reason that I am endorsing Venita is because I have never seen a harder worker and a more dedicated citizen. Whatever job Venita has undertaken has been completed - quickly and accurately. Lake County needs people like Venita McConnel in positions such as the County Clerk's office."

Last April, Grever was reelected to his second four-year term as Ela Twp. Supervisor. He is also a Republican precinct committeeman.

Grever is a life-long resident of Ela Township, and has resided in the Lake Zurich area during the past 50 years. He has been active in many community organizations, including the Lake Zurich JayCees and the Lake Zurich Lions Club.

Most of the Ela Twp. Republican establishment is supporting McConnel's candidacy for Lake County Clerk. Besides Grever, McConnel has received strong endorsements from Ela Twp. GOP Chairman E.A. "Ike" Lusk, Lake Zurich Mayor Henry J. Paulus, Dist. 6 County Board Rep. Glenn Miller, and former Ela Twp. Assessor Al Knox.

Old Methodist Church Rte. 83 - Cedar Ave.

Old Church To Be Sold After Being Remodeled

by GLORIA DAVIS

The old Methodist Church on the corner of Cedar and Rte. 83 in Lake Villa was bought to be used as a home six year ago by Richard and Barrie Mayer.

After investing a lot of money and elbow grease into remodeling it, the church-home is again for sale.

"We have a new baby girl Jessica and we feel we need a home with a yard, this one is too close to the highway, but we still intend to stay in the area, we love Lake Villa," said Barrie.

The Mayers have made a very comfortable living quarters out of the basement of the church that includes a kitchen, two bedrooms, two baths and a family room.

The main part of the church is referred to as "our upstairs living room."

Besides two other smaller rooms on the side that are being used as a den and an office, the main part of the church serves as a giant entertainment room.

The Mayers removed the carpeting from the first level and refinished the beautiful oak floors. They also added a lovely Victorian fireplace that sometimes serves to beat the "great room" in the winter.

The raised dais is still carpeted and holds a large bar. The 12-foot stained glass windows are still in on the south side of the "great room" and the north side where the den and office are.

The gracious entryway is through domed double doors topped by another stained glass window.

"We only use the great room during the warmer months because of the cost of heating a 17-foot ceilinged room although we do do some entertaining when its not freezing out, using the fireplace to heat the room," said Barrie.

The building has been for sale on and off for three years and it looks like the Mayers have found someone else who wants an unusual home since they are in the process of closing a deal for the sale of the old church.

Health Center Progressing Well

Construction for a new entrance to the downstairs portion of Condell Memorial Hospital's Family Health Center satellite on Rollins Rd., Round Lake Beach, is underway, according to Director of Outreach Services Pat Austin.

Austin said the construction began in June and is expected to be completed by the middle of September.

Once the construction is completed, Austin said the center will be offering a variety of classes to residents and users of the center. Classes such as "I quit smoking," arthritis, aerobics, etc...

—She also said the downstairs portion of the center will be made available to the various community organizations in the area who don't have a place to meet.

"A lot of community organizations don't have a meeting place and now they will. We want to be of service to as many people as possible," Austin said.

The center has been at the Round Lake Beach location for approximately six months now and according to Austin, "everything seems to be going smoothly."

Economy: Slow, Steady; Emphasis On Stability

by GARY S. MEYERS and ROBERT E. STENBECK

Slow, steady and stable.

That's how some economists are describing the current economy.

However, when business is flat, managers have to earn their keep. There's no inflation to hide behind, nor is there a bull or bearish market to blame. Corporate profits today will be earned by shrewd managers. The mediocre will languish and seek justification from economists.

The U.S. economy is creeping along like the proverbial tortoise. Hopefully the Federal Reserve Bank, the nation's central banker, will not act like a "wild" hare and over-stimulate the economy with unnaturally lower interest rates.

The Meyers Report

Economic forecaster Gary S. Meyers has been a lecturer and consultant to major financial institutions government analysts, real estate developers and daily newspapers throughout the nation for the past 16 years. Readers are invited to submit comments and questions for possible use as subjects for future columns. Write Gary S. Meyers & Associates, 2200 S. Main St., Suite 106, Lombard, Ill. 60148

The latest reports show the national economy, or gross national product (GNP), is expanding at a 2 percent annual rate. Some consider this lackluster pace as a sign of weakness and are calling for lower interest rates. However, optimists and The Meyers Report still view today's business conditions as stable and favorable.

As forecast months earlier, this apparent lack of direction is creating uncertainty among investors and economists. Almost everyone is trying to identify a movement trend that simply does not exist. A quick look at significant rates listed below tells the story for the last month and likely the next:

Item	Interest Rate Now	July 31	Change
Prime rate	9.50%	9.50%	00.00
Discount rate	7.50	7.50	00.00
Fed funds	7.63	7.60	00.03
90-day T-bills	7.35	7.45	00.10
6-mo. T-bills	7.67	7.74	00.07
1-year T-note	7.93	8.01	00.08
Corp. Bonds	11.08	11.07	00.01
Muni. Bonds	9.12	8.87	00.25
Gold	$335.60	$324.00	$11.60
Silver	$6.30	$6.32	$00.02

Interest rate moves were mixed and slight for consumer saving certificates and lending instruments. Of the institutions surveyed nationwide this week by The Meyers Report for savings interest rates, 79 percent held steady, 9 percent posted increases and 12 percent dropped their rates. The pattern was similar for loans and mortgages as 76 percent remained unchanged, 9 percent posted rate rises and 15 percent lowered their rates.

Treasury instruments this week reflected the same stability as exhibited by the rest of the economy as yields moved only slightly.

180-day	7.676	7.72	down 0.05%

2-year	8.89	8.95	down 0.06%
3-year	9.23	9.28	down 0.05%
5-year	9.75	9.84	down 0.09%
10-year	10.26	10.37	down 0.11%
20-year	10.70	10.79	down 0.09%
30-year	10.54	10.63	down 0.09%

* Average for week ending Aug. 16.

SAVINGS: Average interest rates on money market accounts held at 6.89 percent last week. Six-month certificates fell to 7.57 percent last week while 30-month money certificates remained steady at 8.56 percent.

Fixed- and variable-rate 18-month IRA rates fell this week, to 8.16 percent and 7.93 percent, respectively.

LOANS: Nationwide, the average interest rates on conventional 30-year mortgages with 20 percent down payments fell to 12.27 percent from 12.29 percent a week earlier. Adjustable rate mortgages with one-year terms rose to 9.95 percent from 9.93 percent last week.

This week 36-month new car loans averaged 13.32 percent at financial institutions across the country, while rates on 48-month auto loans averaged 13.10 percent.

FORECAST: THe summer doldrums are here. Stability will continue for another 30 days or until the Fed moves strongly to lower interest rates artificially. Whether or not the Fed will hold a steady course was decided yesterday in the Fed's open market committee. However, what is said and done in the open market committee meeting is kept secret, for one month. Until then we must observe market reactions and guess what was done.

Beginning in October, the long awaited rate rise should commence.

Tim's Landing Looks To Year-Round Facility

by DONNA DUNCAN

Tim's Landing at Diamond Lake is under new ownership and is promoting its full service Marina and water sports facility that includes boat and jet ski rental and new winter activities.

The new owner is Mark Emalfarb and the new manager is Mike Moorman.

One goal of the business is to transform the seasonal facility into a multi-season facility to attract more business and because "we're exclusive on the lake," Moorman said. By this, he means that Tim's Landing is the only privately-owned facility tailored for public use.

"our location is unique because it is surrounded by residential area."

Something new that will be tried this year is ice skating on the lake for the winter months and Moorman is looking into cross country skiing. Ice fishing will also be available.

The marina provides 26 slip rentals, along with rentals for rowboats for rent, jet skis, sailboats, canoes, kayaks and addictor two-man speedboats.

Another feature is the water sport lessons including water skiing, windsurfing, sailing and fishing. Water ski lessons range from bogey board to barefoot. The popular thing now, Moorman said, is water tubing.

For the boater's convenience, a gas pump has been installed on the pier. Live fish bait is sold on site also. Fisherman can try their luck at catching bass, croppie or northern, a variety stocked by the Illinois Dept. of Conservation two years ago.

Another feature to increase traffic on the weekdays is a 30 percent discount for rentals, Moorman said.

A fall fishing program began this month at $30 membership fee, which includes live bait, tackle and 50 percent off on weekdays.

Beach times are from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Tuesdays through Thursdays and from 6 a.m. to 8 p.m. on weekends.

Why electric heat pump owners have second thoughts when the weather gets cold.

For people who bought electric heat pumps, cold weather can be bad news indeed.

Because heat pumps lose capacity as the outside temperature drops. At some point, usually right around freezing, they need help from a backup heating system. Usually, it's electric resistance heating, so you end up heating your home with one of the costliest heating systems just when the weather gets really cold.

In contrast, gas furnaces and boilers have no trouble coping efficiently with severe winters. Whatever the outside temperature, the new high efficiency models can continue to squeeze up to 95% of the available heat out of every cubic foot of gas. So you're getting maximum efficiency to minimize heating costs in bitter cold weather.

Another argument for a gas furnace or boiler is the cost of natural gas itself. Today, it's the least expensive fuel available in this area, and current forecasts indicate it will continue to maintain a strong competitive advantage for years to come.

If you're thinking about adding to or replacing your home heating system, we strongly suggest you go with natural gas.

It's the only way to be sure you won't be having second thoughts when winter comes to Illinois.

Grant Bulldogs Are "Small And Quick"

by KAREN WILTBERGER

The Grant Bulldogs are going to be "small and quick" this season, head coach Mike Rogalski said about the 35-player team after two weeks of practice.

The team, known to be a passing team, will focus this year on more blitzing and running, he said, adding that the team is doing a lot of conditioning.

Returning letterman senior Joe Pokrwka, who started playing football at Grant his junior year, is expected to be the best player on the team this season, he said.

Pokrwka will be on the top of the offense and defense, being a starting tight end and linebacker. "He's pretty good," Rogalski concluded.

Other key players this year include Mark Borton, a junior, who will be starting quarterback.

Kevin Frystak, a sophomore, and seniors Brian Catalano and Keith Paisley will begin the season as starting running backs. Decisions as to who will be starting wide receviers are still up in the air, Rogalski said.

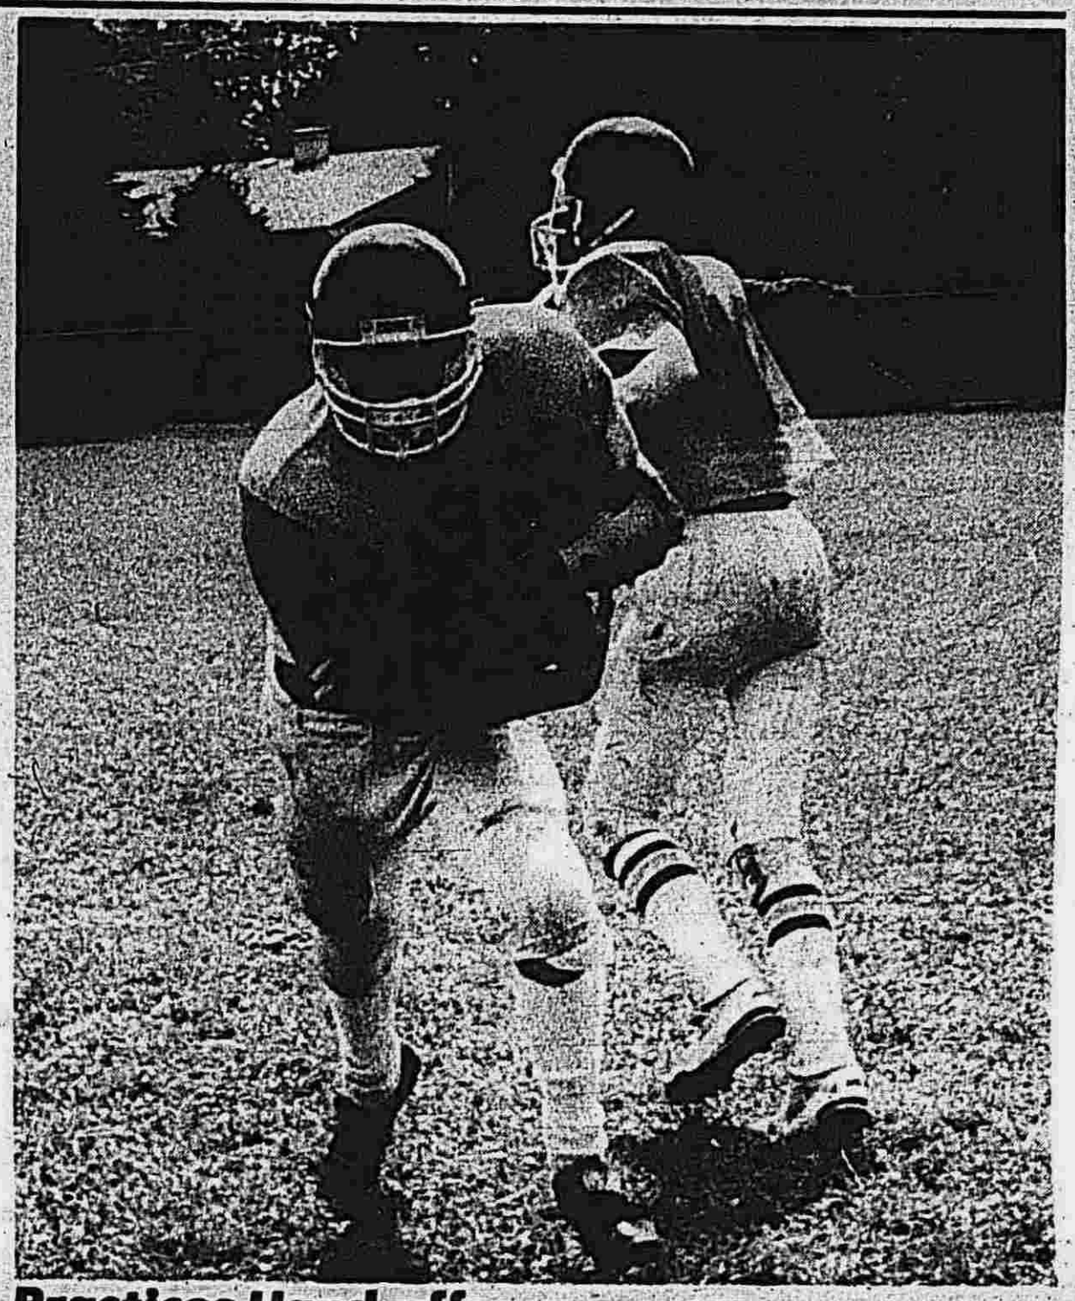

The Bulldogs will take on Ridgewood on their home field on Friday, Aug. 30 after the 6 p.m. sophomore game. There is a chance the game will be postponed until Saturday if field lights are not installed in time. But Rogalski said he expects the game will go as planned on Friday night.

Rogalski said the first two games, which are non-conference, as well as the practices in between will get the team ready for the later conference games.

Ridgewood has a blitzing defense and a running offense, Rogalski said. Nevertheless, he is confident the Bulldogs will win its first game.

"We're going to win or the boss isn't going to pay me," Rogalski concluded with a laugh.

So far, the Bulldogs haven't suffered any injuries.

Panthers Ready For Successful 1985-86

by MIKE PRAMSHAFER

The Round Lake Panther varsity football team hopes to start a successful 1985-86 campaign with a victory over Elmwood Park on Saturday, Aug. 31, at home.

Sophomores will begin their game at 11 a.m., while the varsity squads kickoff at 1 p.m.

Head Coach Mike Dunn is looking forward to this year's edition of Panther football.

"We're ready for an exciting season. We have 38 kids out for the team this year and I'm happy with that number. All of our kids can play football," Dunn said.

"We have a family image and our kids are proud to play for Round Lake High," he added.

Dunn said a starting quarterback for this Saturday's game has not been settled as of yet, with three youngsters vying for that spot.

Senior Jeff Arthur, junior Walter Tesch and sophomore Scott Collis are all competing for that starting quarterback position.

In the backfield, Dunn believes that he has the best tailback in the Northwest Suburban Conference this year with Troy Haines.

Haines stands six-foot tall and weighs-in at 175 pounds.

Dunn is also pleased with his receivers, Art Bragg and David Kaemph. He said these two men will probably get the start against Elmwood Park. Kaemph is also the Panthers' kicker.

"We're going to use a balanced offensive attack against Elmwood Park, including putting the ball in the air," Dunn said.

Dunn said the Panthers have had an excellent preseason training period and are prepared to better their 2-7 overall finish of last year.

"We have 17 seniors on the squad this year and they have been providing a lot of leadership in the preseason," Dunn added.

Offers Latest Sporting Arms

New products by several gun manufacturers, including Browning and Winchester, will be on display at the All-Midwest Hunting & Outdoor Show, opening Aug. 29 for a five-day stint at the Lake County Fairgrounds in Grayslake.

Browning shotguns featuring the new "Invector" choke tube system will be featured at the Cullerton Company booth. Salesman Marc Cullerton expects them to create quite a stir.

"This new system makes it possible for the hunter to change chokes - by screwing in different tubes - right in the field, in just a few seconds, without having to carry an extra barrel," Cullerton explained. "Also, the tubes fit flush with the end of the barrel, so there's no altering of the gun's outward appearance. In terms of convenience, versatility and looks, the 'Invector' system is revolutionary."

Browning's Midas and Diana superposed, high grade shotguns will also be exhibited. The guns are being "re-introduced" after a seven-year absence from the company's catalogue.

"At the Winchester booth, we'll demonstrate reloading shotgun shells, rifle and pistol cartridges, and we'll be giving away reloading manuals," spokesman Paul Nowak said. "We'll also have our new expert shot shells."

New Winchester equipment can be tried out at the Winchester Trap Range, open all five days of the event. Hours are 1 to 6 p.m., Aug. 29 and 30; 11 a.m. to 6 p.m., Aug. 31 and Sept. 1; and 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., Sept. 2. The charge is $1 for five shots.

Other exhibitors of sporting arms include Zoli Firearms, Marlin Firearms, Bighorn Rifle, Pachmayr Gun Works, Inc., Mannlicher Firearms, Merkel Shotgun Company, and Savage Industries.

Accessories such as smokeless powder for small arms will be displayed by the Accurate Arms Company. Wilson Lord GUn Cases will exhibit, and Chace Leather Products Longhorn will display its line of leather gun cases.

Show hours are Aug. 29 and 30, noon to 7 p.m.; Aug. 31 and Sept. 1, 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.; and Sept. 2, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Admission: adults, $5; children 6 to 12, $2.50; children five and under, free.

The Lake County Fairgrounds are located at the intersection of Illinois Highway 120 and Rte. 45, four miles west of I-94.

Bulldogs Build Up Positive Attitude

Wauconda High School's varsity football season starts at 8 p.m. Friday, Aug. 30 against Cary Grove at Cary.

"It looks like a challenge because we do not know what we have compared to what they have," Head Coach Fred Loffredo said.

The first couple weeks of practice have had some surprises — between four and five players were unable to practice because of outside ailments or injuries which had included a case of blood poisoning, appendicitis, and two other injuries.

All of the players are recuperated and will play Aug. 30, except for Rick Troxell, junior who has an injured leg from an outside accident. He is hoped to play later in the season, Loffredo said.

Taking a look at the team's strengths, the Bulldogs have returning lettermen in key spots. This year's returning quarterback is Mike Payne, senior. Other returning lettermen are: Doug Kirk, center; Brian Kyst, tackle; Rich Macron, leftback; Scott Matula, halfback; Paul Nibbio, split end; Norm Niemo, halfback; Brian Rentz, tackle; Gregg Stade, tackle; Skip Stewart, tackle; Ray Terrian, split end; Jerry VanDyke, tight end and Tim Webb, guard.

Three promising juniors that Loffredo will rely on for leadership are Todd Marlow, guard and center; Danny Torres, tackle and Robert Hefke, halfback.

Although Wauconda is a smaller school in the conference in size and population, some things that the team will concentrate on overcoming this is to build a positive attitude and become more skilled in each position and get in better shape.

Carmel Corsairs Groom For Season Opener

With 16 returning lettermen, Carmel High School boy's varsity football team is ready for play against Waukegan East at 8 p.m. on Friday, Aug. 30.

The last week of practice for the Corsairs was mainly review. "We have everything in we want. I feel good about that. It indicates a smart group of people with talent. (Some of the players) have grown up through the system now," Head Coach Jim Rejc said.

Rejc said his team is in good physical shape and their mental work has been improving. He said the players move with less hesitancy. "I'm beginning to see the progress...they know, rather than think," he said.

Included among the leading players will be the three returning starters; Center Craig Staehle; Quarterback John Terlap and Halfback Rod Whittier, who was MVP last year.

Other non-seniors who he will look to for offensive leadership is Ken Godwin, junior and Mike Reitz, sophomore, tackles; Dave Goshgarian, junior, lineman and Jim Young, junior, wide receiver. Defensively, Rejc will look to the following juniors: Joe Tarsian, left-back; Rob Graham, end; Mark Stadtherr, end and Scott Hansen, defensive tackle.

No surprises have popped up during summer practice, except for pleasant ones, he said. The surprise included the budding of a "great lineman," sophomore Mike Reitz. "He has shown he can block real well," Rejc said. Weighing in at 230 pounds, Rejc said he know all along that Reitz could physically play the game.

Other improvements included senior Ashley Boeckholt, who plays tightend. "He grew a lot over the winter." Along with punting, he is a fine blocker and receiver, Rejc said.

The Corsairs, going into the season with a size disadvantage, will rely on the same strategy as last year — running the ball and going in to throw the ball to save the linemen to play defense. "We've got those kind of players with quick feet," Rejc said.

The goal for the year is to become more agressive than in the last two years by stopping the run, Rejc said. "We may even be stunting and blitzing more."

Skyhawks Lose 2 Players, But Looking For A Win

by KAREN WILTBERGER

Two key players on the Johnsburg Skyhawks varsity football team received serious knee injuries fifteen minutes apart during its first scrimmage, head coach Mike Roberts said, adding that he is "cautiously optimistic" for a good season.

Returning letterman Bill Brown and junior John Shiman won't get a chance to play this season, Roberts said.

"We will really miss those two," he said. "It's really going to hurt us."

Roberts said Brown was out to be a starting tight end and defensive end and Shiman was a likely choice to start as defensive back or a safety.

Though the injuries will be a great loss for the team, Roberts said, there is no doubt other players can fill in and get the job done.

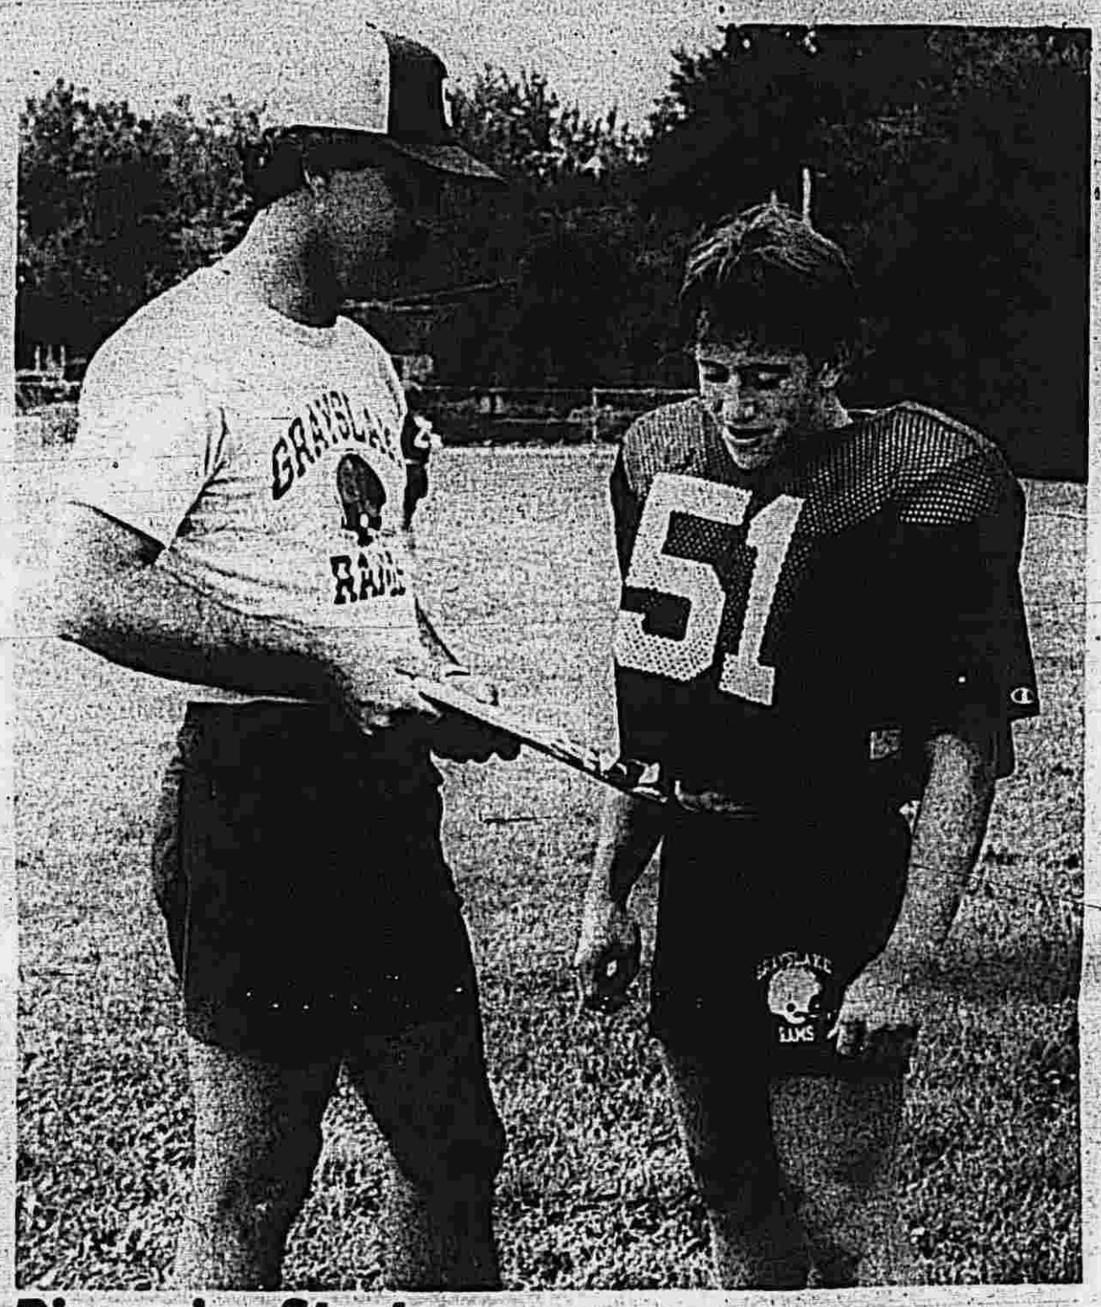

Johnsburg's first game will be against Richmond-Burton High School on its home field Friday, Aug. 30. Kickoff will be at around 7:30 after the sophomore game.

"I don't want to be negative," Roberts said. "I'm cautiously optimistic. It's early yet. I'm not pushing a panic button."

He said he expects the first game to be "a dog fight." Richmond has always had an outstanding football team, he said, but Johnsburg stacks up real well against them.

Starting quarterback for Johnsburg will be Frank Husak. Starting wide receiver will be Pete Switzer. Four or five players are still battling for starting running back positions, Roberts said.

The Skyhawks, known to be a running team, this year is trying to become more balanced, namely more passing, Roberts said.

Sequoits Get Ready For Mustangs' Aerial Attack

by GLORIA DAVIS

Now that the Antioch Sequoits have had the game that they have always considered their first game of the season, full-dress inter-team scrimmage complete with officials on Kick-Off Day on Aug. 24, they are getting ready to face the Mundelein Mustangs on Aug. 31 at Antioch for their first North Suburban Conference game.

According to Sequoit Coach Steve Wapon, the scrimmage usually is the first moment of truth as far as the Antioch squad is concerned since it usually serves to tell them just what the team is made of.

"It's going to be a tough game, Mundelein is always well-coached with Gary Heffner one of the best around," said Wapon.

He added, "The last couple of times we played them they were hard-hitting and not afraid to put the ball in the air."

Because of this expected aerial game, Wapon has been getting his boys ready to handle a diversified air attack.

Wapon said that Quarterback Mark DoBosh "is throwing well and ready to go.

He also expects good things from returning lettermen like tailback Pat Bruks who looks strong, especially behind the blocking of Rick Turco.

Wapon was enthusiastic about the continous improvement of offensive linebackers Ken White and Matt Humphreys.

"I definitely expect my experienced people like linebackers Bob Johnson, Tom Homon and Larry Rodgers to lead the way," said Wapon.

Rams To Face Driscoll There

Grayslake Community High School will begin its football season at 2 p.m. on Sunday, Aug. 31 at Addision (Driscoll).

This year the team has 28 players with six returning lettermen and 16 seniors. Coach Tom Wittum shows some concern about having so many first year seniors. "We are a little short on experience but I feel we have a good team," Wittum said.

"We have a lot of seniors playing for the first time. We've done real well in preseason practices but we'll have to see how they play in a game without having any previous game experience," Wittum commented.

The Grayslake Rams have had no serious injuries during the practice season but will be missing some players due to a practice rule.

The rule states that before playing in a game, a player must participate in at least 14 practices with the team. "We've had some players go on vacation and therefore they won't have enough practice time in to play," Wittum said.

"Right now we just want to keep everyone healthy and in playing condition. We don't have many back-ups this year," Wittum added.

Holds Tryouts

Team Runs 3.5 Miles

Members of the Corporate Running Team of Condell Memorial Hospital, a subsidiary of The Medical Center of Lake County, recently participated in the Manufacturer's Corporate Challenge, a national run held in Chicago.

This 3.5 mile run attracted teams representing companies from throughtout the country. More than 7000 runners participated in the event held in Grant Park, Chicago.

Condell's corporate team included Louis Daniels, environmental services; Craig Dean, emergency department; Deb Nelson and Diane Schmidt of nursing services; Terrence Grupe, cardiorespiratory care; Marc Cohen, radiology; Joe Dillmann, pharmacy; and John Edgell, food services.

Blue Devils To Host Warhawks

The Warren Twp. High School Blue Devils will begin the football season at 8 p.m. on Friday, Aug. 30 with a home game against North Chicago.

The team begins the season with 35 players. Only two of the players are returning lettermen. "We had a very senior orientated team last year. Six of our players have gone on to college ball," Coach Reggie Hughes commented.

The two returning lettermen are John Carnick and Jim Burke. Carnick is an offensive guard who weighs in at 190 at 6'2". Burke is a 5'10" fullback weighing in at 204.

According to Hughes, the juniors have experience and talent. "With seniors coming in who have no experience its hard to say what will happen in the upcoming games," Hughes said.

Boat Races

The Lake Zurich Lions Club announces the 5th Annual Illinois State Championship Power-Boats Races on Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 7 and 8, at Pleasant Acres Park, intersection of State Rtes. 12 and 22. The races will begin at noon each day and will run until 5:30 p.m. The admission will be $2 for adults and $1 for children under 12.

In Memoriam

SHE IS gone, but not forgotten, and as dawns another year in our lonely hours of thinking, thoughts of her are always near, days of sadness will come over us, friends may think the wound is healed but they little know the sorrow that lies within the heart concealed. Sadly missed by your friends, Poncho John & Art.

Remembering Trixie
The lovable performing dog, Trixie, third from left, poses with the rest of her group, "Toby's Angel's" during their performing days. Trixie, formerly an abandoned dog, was taken in by the Whitney family of Wauconda and was taught tricks such as shake hands, roll over, jump hoops, play dead and go down a slide. She died on July 30, 1985.

Trixie's Life Will Be Remembered

by CHARLENE WHITNEY

This is one of the hardest articles that I have ever written, but it is one that I feel is touching and can be related with many pet owners, with many pets that have been put out and with all the people who have enjoyed watching Toby's Angels perform. This is a group of dogs and cats that do tricks to make people feel good in nursing homes, schools, churches, scouts, etc.

Perhaps many of you remember the black, mixed breed dog named Trixie and I've already had many ask me why they haven't been seeing her perform. Trixie had also been in the petwise picture that appeared every week.

Well, Trixie retired from her tricks at the age of 15. Her legs and heart just couldn't keep up and it was clear that all she wanted was rest. These last three years, she enjoyed her comfortable bed and walks in the backyard. Our daughter would often feed her little goodies by hand. On July 30, Trixie became so tired that she could barely hold her head up anymore. The Vet. said her heart was about to go. So, Trixie was put to rest. She has been buried at the Arrowwood Pet Cemetery in HalfDay.

It's not easy to put to rest a pet even if she was over 18 years old. We loved her with all our heart. It took friends to come in and help us. A loss of a pet can be very hard on a family.

Trixie had a very unusual story and perhaps one heard many times over by other owners. My husband and I were only married a couple of months and we already had my dog, toby. So, we really weren't looking for any more dogs.

One day, while cooking outside the apartment on the grill, our steak was taken in a flash and Trixie ran down the alley to eat it. She wasn't about to give it back. So, my husband let her have it. I started asking around to find out who had let their dog run loose.

All that I found out was that Trixie had been kicked out of a car going down the road. Trixie ran after her owner that had dumped her, but couldn't catch the car. So, she stayed around the big apartment building that had 180 units, in hopes that her owner would come back for her.

A couple of days later, I saw Trixie again, but this time in my kitchen. I had left the back door open after visiting with a friend and forgot to close it all the way. Here was Trixie on the second floor, after going through two doors. She was eating food from Toby's dish. I hurried to close the door so as not to lose her.

The landlady told me that no on wanted the dog, so I called my husband at work and asked if I could deep her. He said, "sure." So, I picked up Trixie and put her in the tub to get her clean.

We decided to run an ad to find her a good home. Meanwhile, Trixie was making fiends with Toby and we were gettin soft. So, Trixie began to learn about a leash and how to obey. Simple tricks followed that. Still, in many ways she decided that she was going to belong to my husband. She liked his games which always won her special treats like ice cream cones.

Trixie became our dog and traveled with us. She became very close to Toby. After five years, Toby passed away and all at once, Trixie felt alone. She would jump the fence and we would have to go out to find her. After we got a puppy in the house, Trixie stayed home again.

Over the years, Trixie performed in about 1,200 shows. She made thousands of people smile. She had been kicked and beaten before we got her, but still, Tixie showed much love for all these people. Kids would put their arms around her and the old people would reach down to pet her. Trixie had forgiven the mistreatment that had been handed to her before we got her and she had given only love to all who wanted it.

Don't Change Mind Half Way Through

Cross Court Or Down The Line?

Too often a player gets excited, loses patience and blows shots when playing a net rusher. Either they feel the need to rush their shots in trying to blast it by the opponent or they momentarily take their eyes off the ball to look at the opponent and then miss the shot.

First, you must look at the ball - it's the only thing that really moves. The lines don't move; the player moves but you know approximately where he is at - you don't have to look for him, look at the ball.

Be patient, make up your mind immediately if you're going to try to pass him, cross court or down the line. Then go for it - don't change your mind half way through the stroke.

Of course there are other options but let's discuss the cross court or down the line.

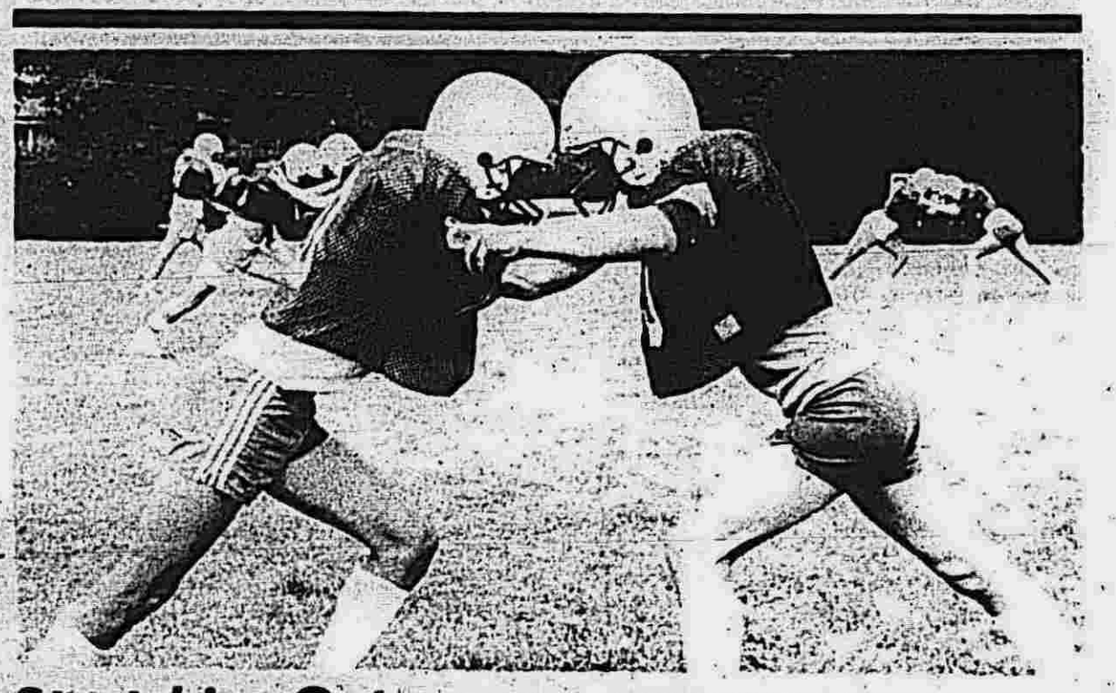

Normally the percentage shot is cross court. The net is lower there and there's more court to hit into. But you must be careful to keep it lower and angled.

If you elect to go down the line remember that the net is higher there so you must hit a little higher, (top-spin helps).

You can also hit outside the line and have it curve in for a winner. Since there is less court here, you must be more careful, so don't try to hit the line - pick a spot two to three feet inside and aim for it.

By going down the line, your opponent has less time to react.

Parola Puts Education Over Professional Career

by DAN G. O'SHEA

Todd Parola, a top athlete at Grayslake Community High School one year ago, may be thinking about a professional career in baseball, but education comes first.

"I'm sure Todd would like to go into professional sports but his education is first," confirmed Parola's mother.

Parola is entering his second year at the University of Indiana in Bloomington. He is studying business and playing baseball at the Big Ten Conference school.

He kept busy this summer as a member of the American Legion baseball team in Mundelein, where he was one of the top hitters.

Parola played baseball for four years while at Grayslake and earned most valuable player honors for the team his senior season in 1984.

He had a team-leading .416 average and also led the Rams in doubles, triples and stolen bases. He struck out only twice in 100 at bats.

The 5-foot-8 shortstop made the All-Lake County baseball team in both 1983 and '84.

Parola also excelled in basketball at Grayslake High. He was the 1983-84 Northwest Suburban Conference most valuable player and made the all-county team. He averaged 14.5 points per game with 103 assists and 48 steals.

French Lick Has Plan For Modified Americans

Two hundred years ago French Lick, Ind., was an early outpost in the middle western wilderness. Chemically rich spring waters and salts attracted wildlife to this healthful area. French trappers prospered and salt deposits became known as the "The Lick."

In 1832 the first built ramshackle three-story hotel featured Health Springs and was an immediate success. Visitors carried water away in glass and canvas containers. In 1897, Tom Taggert, Irish immigrant mayor of Indiananpolis, headed a real estate syndicate which purchased and started rebuilding the fire damaged hotel. They were the French Lick Springs Co.

As Democratic National Chairman, Taggert commanded the attention of the elite. Society soon discovered French Lick Springs. Rigidly elegant and dedicated to health and recreation, the wealthy attended. Business meetings and gambling attracted others equally able to support the remote finery.

Here in 1931, Franklin D. Roosevelt, seeking health and public support, announced his presidential candidacy. It became a Sheraton Hotel in 1954, but after 25 years of extensive renovation it was sold to its present owners, the Cox Hotel Corp.

The physical hotel under Taggert's ownership was self sustaining, but now uses public utilities. However, it still supplies every possible visitor service, recreational resource and related equipment. They say, just bring yourself...we'll supply the rest. And it's true.

Their modified American Plan includes breakfast, dinner and 500 rooms. Golf, swimming, tennis, riding, skeet, bowling, theater and personal recreation are all present, with fishing, boating and skiing nearby.

The SPA will help beautify the body to the extent desired, stretch and relax muscles, groom the skin and slow the tempos of competition. What was once the world famous Pluto Water Spring has retreated to commercial oblivion, although reminder scents do prevail at various outdoor points.

Our two room suite had 10-foot ceilings, nine-foot doors and fine heavy furnishings that would tease antique buffs. We sampled the SPA offerings...a Swedish massage, steam room, sauna, cold shower and whirlpool tub. My masseuse warned that the procedure can be habit-forming.

My wife, Ruth, took the facial, after which, by telephone, she warned our dinner partners what she'd be wearing...just in case she became unrecognizably beautiful...but they knew her anyway. Visiting with diet in mind may be difficult, as the elegant food and service of the dining rooms seems to remove "no thank you" from a visitor's vocabulary.

Autie Shipman, 81, a lifetime employee of the hotel and chaffeur to the Taggert family, recalls notables including President Truman (whom Autie strongly resembles), Babe Ruth and movie western stars such as Autry, Rogers and Cassidy. Al Capone had the liquor consignment in the off-limit casinos, while Indiana was still dry. Much of Capone's "moonshine" came from stills in nearby Kentucky hills.

Many special visitor packages are offered, but mainly it's do what you wish. Put your name and room number on the bill and pay on the way out. Dining room tips are included in the price, but not for liquor and luggage service. Two thousand six hundred acres in this quiet rolling Indiana corner spells pleasure for visitors at affordable rates. Details from French Lick Springs Resort, French Lick, Ind., 47432.

Sauces Add Zest To Plain Meat Dishes

I love sauces because they can turn routine dishes into mouthwatering experiences. Unfortunately, the meat or vegetables usually get all the credit.

I once wrote a friend that there are four kinds of sauces: simple, time-consuming, difficult and forget it. I also advised that simple sauces were those that don't take any longer to prepare than the meat or vegetables. I still stick by those observations.

Preparing two sauces for one meal is challenging but with a little help from your friends or relatives, it is not out of reach.

While my stepson looked after two pounds of skirt steak barbecuing outside, I tackled the sauce bernaise inside. I must admit he gave me a head start, but the sauce was ready when the meat was sliced thin.

The sauce was so good that all parties used it on their baked potatoes. I would have served some with the asparagus except that I made a citrus sauce for it. I learned that you don't always have to serve barbecue sauce with grilled meat. Ah, variety, it keeps me coming back for more.

Sauces, take a bow – you deserve it.

Sauce Bernaise

1/2 pound butter
2 tablespoons finely chopped shallots
3 tablespoons dry white wine
1 teaspoon crushed peppercorns
1 teaspoon dried tarragon leaves
2 egg yolks
1 tablespoon cold water

In small, heavy saucepan, let butter slowly melt, skimming off film. In another small, heavy saucepan, heat shallots, wine, peppercorns and tarragon on medium low heat until liquid evaporates; remove from heat and let pan cool briefly. Add yolks and water to shallot mixture, return to low heat and vigorously stir. Remove pan to cold surface, gradually add melted butter and vigorously stir. Yields one cup. Serve over grilled beef or whatever.

Orange-Lemon-Sauce

1/4 pound margarine
1/2 cup orange juice
4 teaspoons lemon juice
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind

In small saucepan, melt margarine, stir in rest of ingredients and heat through, occasionally stirring. Yields 1/3 cup. Serve over asparagus or Brussels sprouts.

U.S.I. Receives Award

U.S.I. Chemicals has been presented an Outstanding Quality Award by the Pharmaceutical Products Division of Abbott Laboratories, North Chicago.

The award recognizes the exceptional quality of U.S.I.'s Punctilious ethyl alcohol supplied to Abbott during the 1984 calendar year. This is the fourth successive year that U.S.I. has earned the award.

To qualify for this distinction, U.S.I. had to score at least 98 percent in Abbott's supplier conformance rating system. Only about eight percent of the firm's suppliers achieve that high a score, according to Richard A. Maass, Abbott's supplier quility assurance manager.

Based on ability to meet stringent product specifications, quality of packaging, and labeling completeness and accuracy, U.S.I. actually scored 100 percent, Maass said.

U.S.I.'s Tuscola, Ill., plant supplies three grades of ethyl alcohol to Abbott: SDA 3A anhydrous, 190 proof pure and 200 proff pure. They are used in manufacturing such products as Eryderm dermatological antibiotic and Surbex vitamins.

U.S. Industrial CHemicals Company is a division of National Distillers and Chemical Corporation and a major producer of industrial ehtyl alcohol, acetic acid, vinyl acetate monomer, plastics compounds and all types of polyethylene resins.

Rarely does one have the opportunity to design a gift for oneself but recently CHF Industries of Grayslake provided such an opportunity to Shimer College.

The tables were built according to the school's specifiactions, designed specifically for use in Shimer's discussion group classes. The college course works employs original source materials rather than textbooks and its seminar classes encourage an open exchange of ideas and information.

Honorable Mayor and Board of Trustees
Village of Wauconda
Lake County, Illinois

I have examined the combined financial statements of the funds and account groups of the Village of Wauconda, Lake County, Illinois, as listed in the accompanaying Table of Contents, as of April 30, 1985, and for the year then ended. My examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as I considered necessary in the circumstances.

As described more fully in Note 1, the aforementioned combined financial statements are prepared on the cash basis, except for the Village's Enterprise Fund Type which is prepared on the accrual basis. The cash basis of accounting omits recognition of accounts receivable, accounts payable, and other accrued items. Accordingly, the financial statements of all other Governmental Fund Types and the Fiduciary Fund Type are not intended to, and do not represent their financial position, results of their operations, or changes in their fund equity in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In my opinion, the aforementioned financial statements of the Enterprise Fund Type of the Village of Wauconda, Lake County, Illinois presents fairly its financial position at April 30, 1985, results of its operations and changes in its financial position for the year then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. It is also my opinion that the aforementioned financial statements of the Village's other Governmental Fund Types and Fiduciary Fund Type present fairly the assets and liabilities arising from cash transactions at April 30, 1985, and their cash transactions for the year then ended. Both of these bases are consistent with that of the preceding year.

My examination was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the combined financial statements taken as a whole. The accompanying financial information, listed as supplementary information in the Table of Contents, is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the combined financial statements of the Village of Wauconda, Lake County, Illinois. The information, except for assessed valuations, tax rates, and tax extensions, and the information required by bond ordinances, as shown on page 40, has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examination of the combined financial statements and, in my opinion is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the combined financial statements taken as a whole.

"It's outrageous to pay 19.8% interest on a credit card..."

Sue Warndorf, Combined Services Supervisor, coordinates the efficient operation of Skokie Federal's VISA/MasterCard department.

"It's outrageous to pay 19.8% interest on a credit card...yet so many people do. Unfortunately, most people aren't aware that they have another choice. At Skokie Federal, for example, we charge 18% interest and $15 per year for a VISA or MasterCard. Citicorp, First National Bank of Chicago and Harris Bank all charge 19.8% interest and $20 per year for a similar card. The choice in this case seems obvious...and in most other cases, too. Skokie Federal has among the lowest finance charges and annual fees offered anywhere.

"It's no wonder my staff and I are kept so busy. The number of customers we have keeps growing every day. Part of our success, too, is the personal attention and service we provide. At the downtown banks there's frequently a long wait on the phone just to find someone who'll answer a billing question. Our customers know just who to call. They can be assured that their questions will be answered promptly by someone who is familiar with their account.

"I'm proud to be a part of the VISA/MasterCard team at Skokie Federal. I don't think there's a better credit card service around."

MEET SKOKIE FEDERAL. MEET WITH SUCCESS.

NEXT WEEK'S HOROSCOPE
BY SALOME

Aries (Mar. 21-Apr. 19) Things look fantastical in matters romantical. Of course, the Arian who resists being sheepish about the situation stands a better chance of cornering Cupid for a decision.

Taurus (Apr. 29-May 20) A cool attitude doesn't automatically put your plans on ice. If you're rejected in one place, try another. Someone is waiting with a warm reception. Be patient.

Gemini (May 21-June 20) Open your eyes. The answers are all around you. All you have to do is be willing to see what you've been trying to avoid. Situation calls for delicate handling.

Cancer (June 21-Jul. 20) Blaming others for your current problem does no good. This temporary gloom lifts more quickly when you shift gears and start to make changes in your methods.

Leo (Jul. 21-Aug. 22) Someone — (could be a Sagittarian or a Pisces) — waits to warm up those Leos and/or Leonas who feel the chill of romantic neglect. Be prepared to have visitors to your den.

Virgo (Aug. 22-Sept. 22) Take a little longer to make decisions. Skipping steps saves time, but you may overlook important facts you'll need later on. Plan a fall vacation with the family.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) You won't trip up planning a trip home to see family and old friends. Some long-held questions may also find welcome answers. Expect to enjoy your experience.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) Frequent fusses at work or at home are due to higher expectations than people can provide under pressure. Lower your sights and others will raise their efforts.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) You don't have to play it coy. Anyone lucky enough to have someone like you care for him or her also wants the open, honest relationship you will insist on.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) You will find it easier going than it has been in recent days. Obstacles begin to clear as you start to cut a path through them. Family/friends continue to help.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Changes occur quickly. You'll be able to stay on top of them if you don't panic. Take things one step at a time and you won't be trampled in the quick pace ahead.

Pisces (Feb. 19-Mar. 20) Change is the watchword for quick-witted Pisceans who want to find a way out of a stagnant pool. Opportunity flows in with the tide. Be alert for its arrival.
